On April 6, 2021, Honey Creek Community School began offering in-person instruction. Grades k-3 will offer half-day in-person instruction as well as the virtual option. Grades 4 through 8 will provide half-day hybrid classes. All grades will have some specials classes delivered virtually in the afternoon.

Document Public Comments:

Public Comment (Limited to Learning Plan)

1. Will Meurer: Pandemic has remained unpredictable. Surge was less acute in Washtenaw County than other parts of the state, and it seems to be subsiding. Thanks to teachers for providing education to all students both in person and virtual. Virus will likely still be present in the fall, and the younger children are unlikely to have access to vaccinations by them. Outdoor instruction and ventilation of rooms is important.
2. Marolyn Valenzuela: Schooling hasn't been easy but seeing the kids come back safely has been good.
